Print on the front and back. The t-shirt is of Premium Quality, it has been made in Poland especially for Behemoth and its quality and durability is far much better than most of the other t-shirts present on the market. Please note, we are using European sizing. Despite enduring death threats, deportation and a Supreme Court trial, Polish metal titans Behemoth have been thrashing and growling away since the s and remain one of Europe's most extreme and controversial forces. Front man Adam 'Nergal' Darski grew up at a time when his country was transitioning out of communism and after discovering his brother's Iron Maiden and Manowar cassette . A leading light in the Polish metal scene, Behemoth emerged in the early s with a caustic cocktail of black and death metal that was made all the more punitive by a heavy dose of religious provocation. Both sonically and socially pugilistic -- they were criminally charged by the Polish government for tearing up a bible and emblazoning the country's coat of arms on a T-shirt -- the band. 8/7/ · I know Behemoth just from 'Satanica' and 'Thelema.6' and since this very day also from their newest album 'Evangelion'. The nine songs on Evangelion don't represent any real stylistic left turns for Behemoth. The brutal riffing, avalanches of drums, and firestorm vocals are all present throughout, as are Nergal's lyrics, which are much more sophisticated and rooted in a deep understanding of the Old Testament than the usual, rote Christian-bashing of most death. 2/7/ · Behemoth - Evangelion () FREE DOWNLOAD Genre: Black / Death Metal Format: mp3 Country: Poland Size: 61 Mb. behemoth definition: 1. something that is extremely large and often extremely powerful: 2. something that is extremely. Behemoth, é o nome de uma criatura descrita na Bíblia, no Livro de Jó, e também é o nome de uma das bandas mais fôdas do Death Metal / Black ykuqakoc.podarokideal.rua na Polônia em e liderada pelo guitarrista e vocalista Nergal, o Behemoth criou uma enorme força durante a década passada como uma grande banda dentro do cenário underground do black metal. Behemoth "Evangelion" ( repress, signed) Behemoth came into my life just around the time "Demigod" was released, and all of my friends LOVED it. I could never really get into it, until this one came out. It has that extreme sound, but it doesn't have the insane layered vocals, or over-done production style of the previous albums. But what Evangelion is, however, is a return to Behemoth at the height of their powers, a return to the death metal powerhouse they were at the beginning of the 21 st Century. And this time out, it's been augmented by the tighter songcraft Nergal picked up during the Demigod era, resulting in one of the catchiest yet most crushing death metal. But Evangelion () logically progresses their sound to that next level which perhaps will have this hailed as a classic of the genre in years to come. Behemoth create a dense wall of sound that is methodically crushing and practically unrelenting in its intensity/5(80). 7/24/ · “Evangelion” doesn’t particularly break out of the established sound of Behemoth, but that isn’t a bad thing. These musicians know what they can do, and they do it well. The album is a continuation of their previous sound with enough advancement to make it distinctly its own entity, but no one should hold any illusions about an. Group Behemoth from region Poland plays in genre Black Metal, Death Metal and is recorded on label Nuclear Blast Records, at the time in status Active. However, the most obvious difference with Evangelion is it’s variation in song structure, riffing patterns, and tempo variation. This is what makes this record such a pleasure to listen to multiple times because it really doesn’t blend together much at all. I’m pleased to say that Behemoth has achieved a big feat here.
