Drawing upon influences as diverse as jazz guitarists Lenny Breau and Tuck Andress, along with Latin, soul, pop and funk, all facets can be heard on his debut album State Of Mind. Raul calls himself a "one-man orchestra", or more precisely a one-man rhythm machine. Raul Midón brings a vibrant sound steeped in classic soul to the pop arena, because pop is where a singer and a song can have the biggest and most widespread impact. When an envelope-pushing song becomes a pop hit, it shifts the entire musical landscape, forcing out the shopworn and clichéd while opening the windows of change to let in fresh ideas. After seeing Raul Midón perform a brief live set I was impressed enough with him to plunk down $10 for his debut studio CD, State Of ykuqakoc.podarokideal.ru. Unfortunately, after a few listens this has turned out to be a mixed blessing. Vocally Midón can be described as a cross. Raul Midón - All The Answers Lyrics.
